2. Please respect our neighbours' property. Refrain from smoking or loitering outside.
3. Direct and severe eye contact is recommended for all patrons toasting.

5. Feel free to work or play here in a manner consistent with other patrons' peaceful enjoyment.

Wine - Sparkling

	2021 Ballinaclash Wines	Hilltops
13/75	“Traditional Method Blanc de Blanc” Chardonnay Simon Hall

Since 1965, Ballinaclash has grown from a family-run orchard into a boutique farm and vineyard with the highest quality fruit in mind. Benefitting from extended time maturing in bottle, this sparkling wine shows aromas of toast and lemon pith, with a zesty palate featuring notes of apple and pear skin.

	Courabyra Wines	Tumbarumba
18/107	“1 of 11 Sparkling Brut NV” Chardonnay, Pinot Noir Cathy Gairn

One of eleven children, winemaker Cathy has shaped Courabyra Wines with a deep sense of family and dedication to quality. Crafted in the high-altitude, cool-climate foothills of the Snowy Mountains, the Brut NV has been aged for at least 3 years before release, and shows lifted citrus and brioche aromas, with a fine, creamy palate and delicate bubbles.

	2021 Topper’s Mountain Wines	New England
15/84	“Rosé Extra Brut” Nebbiolo Mark and Stephanie Kirkby

High up above 900m, the ten hectare vineyard specialises in alternative varieties. The Kirkbys don’t use any pesticides, but rather promote a balanced ecosystem that is able to help itself. As the only sparkling Nebbiolo made in Australia, it is full of fresh rosehip and wild strawberry aromas, with a creamy texture.

Wine - White

	2025 Corang Estate	Canberra District
15/36/68	Riesling
	Michael and Jill Bynon

Nestled on the cool, elevated bushland of the Southern Tablelands, Corang Estate draws inspiration from its tranquil river-lined setting and passion for cool-climate wines. Whole-bunch pressed and cool-fermented to preserve its pure fruit character, the palate shows bright citrus and floral notes framed by mouthwatering acidity.

	2024 Sapling Yard	Hilltops
17/43/84	Albariño
	Carla Rodeghiero

Sapling Yard was founded in 2008 when Carla planted her own vineyard in Braidwood at 650 metres above sea level, championing grape varieties that thrive in cool climates. The wine is full of juicy peach and nectarine aromas, complemented by a subtle creamy texture due to additional winemaking after fermentation.

	2024 Dawning Day Farms	Gundagai
15/37/73	“Latino Bianco” Fiano
	Mike and Katrina Archer

Dawning Day Farms is a small family owned and operated micro-vineyard located in Exeter in the Southern Highlands. This Fiano, originally home in the Campania region in Italy, boasts intense honey and lemon flavours, while a mouth-coating salinity provides freshness.

Wine - White (Continued)

	2025 The Little Wine Company	Hunter Valley
13/33/62	Vermentino
	Suzanne and Ian Little

Suzanne and Ian, both from winemaking backgrounds, joined forces in 2000. Their Vermentino, sourced from the historic Roxburgh vineyard, thrives in the warm Hunter Valley and shows jasmine and nectarine aromas with a savoury, saline balance.

	2023 Manners Wines	Mudgee
14/35/69	Chardonnay
	James Manners

It began with a transformative lunch in France in 1992, leading James through prestigious wineries in Australia and abroad to create small-batch, experimental wines crafted with a gentle hand. Only two barrels were made, showing ripe citrus and a bold structure from oak maturation.

	2025 Intrepidus Wines	Gundagai
14/35/69	“Blanc de Gris” Chenin Blanc, Pinot Gris
	Chrissie Smith

A single conversation in a wine bar sparked a bold shift: leaving a job, starting vineyard work, and earning a viticulture degree. Today, Chrissie sources her fruit from sustainable vineyards, making thoughtful, high-quality wines. This is a generous, creamy yet zippy wine, bringing the best of both varieties together.

	2019 Tyrrell’s Wines	Hunter Valley
18/46/89	“Stevens’ Vineyard” Semillon
	Chris Tyrrell and Andrew Spinaze

Released only in 2025 after careful maturation at the winery, this Semillon reflects Tyrrell’s unwavering commitment to releasing wines only when they are deemed ready. The wine shows intense flavours of grilled lemon, green almonds, and a mouth-coating sherbet-like freshness.

Wine - Amber

	2024 The Somm & the Winemaker	Orange
16/41/80	“Skinny” Sauvignon Blanc, Pinot Gris, Gewürztraminer, Riesling, Arneis Nadja Wallington and Louella Matthews

This collaboration celebrates the friendship between winemaker Nadja and Sydney sommelier (and former Orange local) Louella Matthews. A lively, skin-contact field blend, bursting with grapefruit, orange peel, and guava over crunchy tannins and bright acidity. Co-fermented wild on skins for 90 days and bottled unfiltered.

Wine - Rosé

	2025 Latitude 32 Wines	Hunter Valley
12/30/58	Rosé Syrah Adam Holberg

Emma and David White turned their global passion for wine travel into a sustainable winemaking venture in the Hunter Valley, where winemaker Adam Holberg uses his regional expertise to craft wines of authenticity, balance, and character. Their wine is light and fresh, revealing delicate notes of peach and creamy strawberry.

	2024 Meredith	Orange
16/41/79	“Such Small Hands” Cabernet Sauvignon Mem Hemmings

Mem, a self-proclaimed “rosé fanatic”, celebrates sustainably made wine with heart. Her label acknowledges the deep history of the land on which the vines are grown, recognising the enduring connection of First Nations communities. Direct-pressed and neither fined nor filtered, the wine has ample texture and savoury depth.

Wine - Red

	2023 Alex Retief Wines	Hilltops
15/38/73	“Chilled Out Red” Shiraz, Gamay Alex Retief

Alex’s passion for wine began in 1997, when his parents planted a vineyard in Gundagai. After spending several years working in some of the world’s most prestigious wine regions, he launched his own label in 2008. This is an un-oaked wine made in the style of a French ‘Beaujolais’, showing crunchy red fruits with lots of freshness and bright acidity. Served chilled.

	2023 See Saw Organic Wines	Orange
16/39/76	“Invergo” Pinot Noir Monica Gray

With over 30 years of experience, this family-run business has grown to become one of Australia’s leading organic wine producers. Pinot Noir from Orange is already considered a cornerstone of the Australian wine scene, prized for its medium-bodied structure, velvety texture and plush fruit profile of juicy cherries and cranberries.

	2022 Whitton Farm	Hilltops
18/44/86	Nebbiolo Caleb Wearne

Whitton Farm, driven by a passion for fine Italian wines, produces small batch handcrafted wines from New South Wales’ premium, often overlooked wine regions that share a similar climate to central Italy. This wine has a bold structure like its Piedmontese relative, with a soft fruit core of red cherries and raspberries.

	2025 Majama Wines	Murray Darling
17/42/82	“in Kothi” Nero D’Avola
	Millie Shorter and Rojer Rathod

This Sicilian variety, crafted with minimal sulphites, was fermented in traditional Indian clay pots (Kothi). Aromas of black cherry, plum, blackberry, and red currant mingle with delicate hints of violet and black pepper, while ripe fruit flavours and subtle earthy spice coat the palate.

	2024 Grape Pirates	Orange
18/44/86	Malbec, Merlot
	Rebecca Milne and Aaron Onegin-Ward

Founded with its first vintage in 2022, Grape Pirates crafts minimal intervention wines from small parcels. Grown at 860 metres on the slopes of Mt Canobolas, the grapes were co-fermented and matured for twelve months in French oak, giving a juicy palate of plums, mulberries, and sweet spice.

	2023 Clark Wines	Mudgee
14/33/63	“Organic” Shiraz
	Tristan Clark

Working with a less-is-more philosophy, Tristan produces expressive wines through minimal intervention. Fermented with 50% whole bunches and aged 18 months in neutral oak, the wine balances bright, juicy fruit with layered depth.

	2022 De Beaurepaire Wines	Rylstone
17/40/78	“Aviatrix” Cabernet Sauvignon, Petit Verdot
	Will de Beaurepaire and James Wilkinson

Rooted in generations of Burgundian winemaking tradition, the family-run business crafts wines with a clear sense of place. From ancient limestone soils in one of Australia’s coldest inland sites, they farm regeneratively with minimal intervention, letting the vineyard speak. The wine is plush, with a dark fruit core and brooding spice and earth.

	2022 Mino and Co. Wines	Riverina
15/35/68	“A Growers Touch” Durif Alain and Nick Guglielmino

This range pays homage to the local farmers, nurturing and growing the grapes. The warm growing conditions in 2022 allowed for a deep and complex palate of sweet mulberry, backed by subtle cinnamon spice and vanilla from oak ageing.

Wine - Sweet

	2022 Vinifera Wines	Mudgee
8/50	“Easter” Semillon Sam McKendry

The McKendry family has been growing grapes organically since 2008, becoming certified organic in 2013. Made from botrytis grapes, the wine shows aromas of honeysuckle while flavours of candied cashews, honey and orange marmalade coat the palate.

Wine - Non-alcoholic

	NV Altina	Canberra
12/55	“Finger Lime” Sauvignon Blanc Christina Delay and Alan Tse Ca

In 2018, Christina and Alan went on a mission to craft complex drinks combining premium Australian wine with botanicals. Their de-alcoholised Sauvignon Blanc features aromas of white nectarine, fresh cucumber, and notes of pepper and lemon grass.
